

Join Millersville University students and faculty for a special college-day performance of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime.

March 24th, 10:00am performance

Synopsis: We all see the world differently, but Christopher John Francis Boone has a very unique perspective. Living on the autism spectrum, life can be tough at times, but being a mathematical genius certainly helps. After finding his neighbor's dog stabbed with a garden fork and being wrongfully accused, Christopher takes it upon himself to solve this dark mystery.

When: Tuesday, March 24th

Performance Time: 10:00am (bus will leave MU at 9:00am from Stayer Hall). A brief panel discussion will follow. Anticipated return to Millersville at 1:15pm.

Cost: Discounted tickets are $10. Advance payment required.

Reservation required:

<https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=1DfskvC4k0-3M3owqKK1G-qiWayjFUpK mz-gbhZibq1UQIU5VUITUzBHODA3UTJIQkdV S0VYT1BPSi4u>

Contact: Dr. Janet Josephson, Stayer 229, janet.josephson@millersville.edu for more information.