

OFFICE OF DIVERSITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Office of Diversity and Social Justice is committed to cultivating a vibrant learning living and work environment, where diversity, inclusion, equity and social justice are recognized as essential to inclusive excellence.

Reporting to the Office of the President, the Chief Diversity Officer works with the Presidents Commissions as collective impact partners, providing strategic leadership and support to the President and all campus constituents.

The Office of Diversity and Social Justice and the President 's Commissions work in concert to assess campus needs and identify opportunities for new or strengthened programs, activities and services related to diversity, inclusion, accessibility and social justice.

This is a call to join our Team and become a partner.
