

President's Student Hour

New this semester, the President's Student Hour is an opportunity for students to speak directly with the President on campus issues. Up to nine slots are available on each date for students to attend and join the conversation about their futures and the campus environment.

All sessions are from 12 to 1 p.m. in the President's Office in Biemesderfer Executive Center.

Find a list of dates and register, visit <https://www.millersville.edu/president/student-hour.php>.