

Digital Workshops for All Ages

Art to Heart

Art to Heart brings FREE artistic workshops into the homes of our community, while at the same time supporting local artists. Each participating artist has recorded a workshop, providing the opportunity for participants to develop skills and engage artistic pursuits in their own home. These online workshops will offer much needed free arts experiences for children, adults, and senior citizens in our region.

The first five Art to Heart artists are designed to offer classes in a range of genres aimed at a wide audience.

- Evita Colon will offer a vibrant, hands-on poetry/spoken word workshop for participants 10 years to adult
- Julia Jordan-Kamanda brings us a joyful, musical workshop that blends story and song, engaging kids from ages 3 to 8
- Solise Kharisma offers inventive ways to shake things up in her creative movement workshop for kids and adults
- Anita Pilkerton-Plumb offers a wonderful way to process this difficult time through the arts with her “Collage a Memory Box” workshop, good for all ages
- Jennifer Tarr offers an imaginative take on the whole idea of paint, using common kitchen goods like coffee, spices, Kool-Aid, and veggies as materials for producing beautiful works of art in her “Art in the Kitchen” workshop, great for kids and adults, and especially coffee lovers
