

Fall 2020 MU Academic Resilience Speaker Series

Sept 9 12PM-1PM
2020

Organized for all Millersville University students, the biweekly Academic Resilience Speaker Series offers a space to learn, rewind and be provided with actionable strategies and advice for academic success and to support you during these difficult times. To start us off, our first speaker is our very own Nakeiha Primus Ph.D. Please register by clicking anywhere on this page or use the QR code to register.

Setting Goals Based on Your Values and Setting a Resilience Action Plan

Nakeiha Primus, Ph.D.

Nakeiha Primus Smith, Ph.D. is an Associate Professor at Millersville University of Pennsylvania where she prepares future educators in a wide variety of degree programs. She is also Faculty Coordinator for the B.A./B.S. in Multidisciplinary Studies. She received a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature from Tufts University, a Master of Arts in Teaching English Education from Duke University, and Ph.D. in Education from the University of Delaware. Her academic research explores the synergies found in storytelling, curriculum theory, teacher identity, and equity in education.
