INVITES YOU TO ATTEND...

A RESTORATIVE DIALOGUE

The sessions are built on the African philosophy of Restorative Dialogue whose practices are rooted in techniques that provide a space to "lean in" and engage in difficult conversations, with the goal of bringing reconciliation and in turn healing the heart, mind and soul. In small groups, participants will gather to share their thoughts, feelings, and perceptions of current affairs in our university, country, and the world. The goal of these sessions is to share and create community in search of restoration, healing and reconciliation.
