Twilight: Los Angeles, 1992 tells the stories of Black, White, Korean, African American, Mexican American, and Latinx people of all ages, genders, and backgrounds in the days following the beating of Rodney King and the L.A. riots of 1992. The play is crafted from eye-witness accounts and interviews with real people to expose and explore the devastating human impact of the riots.

This play is based on interviews conducted by Anna Deavere Smith soon after the race riots in Los Angeles of 1992. All words were spoken by real people and are verbatim from those interviews.
