

Project: Pedagogy+

WINTER FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Registration now open: <https://bit.ly/2Ffytcx>

Project: Pedagogy+ aims to help faculty create engaged learning spaces. We will utilize two books to guide the workshop, discuss pedagogy, and apply the practices to assignment and classroom redesign. These discussions will lead to meaningful changes in teaching and learning. An opportunity for Professional Development funding is available for faculty demonstrating implementation of activity and assignment strategies from the workshop to courses ahead of the Spring 2021 semester. Professional Development funding is available for faculty demonstrating implementation of classroom assessment redesign during the Spring 2021 semester.

Project: Pedagogy+ includes multiple levels of participation, course design mentorship, and pedagogical support from both the CAE and I&TS to help faculty build successful courses for Spring 2021.
