MU's Honors College: A Review of Honors Advising, Thesis Mentoring, and the Curriculum

Tuesday, February 16th 12:05-1:10 pm

Dr. Elizabeth Thyrum, Director of Honors College

This session will provide an overview of the Honors College and its requirements. The focus will be on the roles that faculty play in relation to the Honors College. Specifically, we would like to help faculty understand how they may serve as academic advisors for honors students, as thesis advisors and thesis committee members, as instructors of honors courses, cross-listed honors courses, and "honors credit" option courses, and as a member of the Honors College Curriculum Committee. Each role will be discussed and guidelines will be provided.
