Citations just got a lot easier to manage & teach: Join us for Zotero 101

Thursday, February 18th
12:05-1:10 pm

Professor Michele Santamaria & Dr. Kaitlin Mondello

Sick of having to learn Chicago Humanities for a journal article when you just learned how to do Chicago Author-Date? Tired of spending a lot of time teaching citations & seeing inconsistent results? Join us for Zotero 101 where you'll learn how to use an open citations manager that can help you keep track of all your research, seamlessly transition from one citation style to another & teach your students to do the same. Save time, energy & focus on the parts of your teaching & research that you want to prioritize.

Meeting ID: 983 0998 2627
